INTRODUCTION

Along with the Ontario NDP Constitution and Bylaws, the Ontario Election Finances Act, the Ontario Election Act, this document comprises the basic rules governing the leadership race for Ontario's NDP.

These guidelines facilitate the democratic process by which New Democrats who are members in good standing select the leadership candidate of their choice. They must also be consistent with the relevant Constitutional provisions of the Ontario NDP and, where applicable, the Federal NDP, with the other existing policies of the Party, Election Finances Act and the Election Act.

Read through these rules carefully and review the relevant forms available in the Leadership Candidate Workbook. The current Ontario NDP Constitution is available online at www.ontariondp.ca/governance.

Should there be any inconsistency or conflict between the English and French versions of the Leadership Race Rules, the English version shall prevail.

PRINCIPLES

The principles of the Party shall be the foundational principles for the Leadership Contest. The Leadership Contest must:

- a. Elect a new leader with greater than 50% of votes cast;
- b. Comply with the Constitution of the Party;
- c. Comply with the Ontario Election Act and the Ontario Election Finances Act;
- d. Comply with the ONDP Anti-Harassment policy;
- e. Generate enthusiasm for the Ontario New Democratic Party, its ideas and principles;
- f. Be positive, inclusive and accessible;
- g. Grow the membership of the Party including prioritizing growth in equity-deserving communities; and
- h. Contribute financially to the Party.

The Leadership Rules are based on and shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the above principles.

1. CHIEF ELECTORAL OFFICER

- a. A Chief Electoral Officer (CEO), to oversee the leadership contest, shall be appointed by the Provincial Executive of the New Democratic Party of Ontario (ONDP).
- b. The CEO shall enforce the regulations set out in the Ontario Election Act, Election Finances Act, the Party's Constitution and Bylaws, and this document.
- c. The CEO is the final authority on all rules and regulations of the leadership contest that are not already provided for in the Ontario Elections Act, Election Finances Act, and the Party's Constitution and Bylaws.
- d. The CEO shall have the authority to set any rules and regulations not detailed in this document, the Ontario Election Act, Election Finances Act, or the Party's Constitution and Bylaws. Any rule or regulations change will be communicated within 24 hours to all registered Candidates.
- e. The CEO shall interpret the rules and provide direction to the campaigns. In the event of a dispute regarding the interpretation or application of the rules, a Candidate may appeal a decision to the Administrative Committee (Provincial Officers).
- f. Staffing support for the CEO shall be provided by the ONDP's Provincial Office.
- g. The CEO will meet at an early date with the campaign manager or an alternate of each registered Candidate to discuss logistical and other details for the leadership campaign.
- h. The CEO will report as stipulated in Appendix A on the leadership campaign and the application of the rules and regulations.
- i. The CEO shall ensure that services or privileges provided to publicly elected officials are not used to further the candidacy of a leadership Candidate.
- j. The CEO shall apply sanctions up to and including fines and/or disqualification for an offending Candidate. Complaints concerning adherence to leadership rules are to be made to the CEO and will not be anonymous and must be documented.
- k. The CEO shall inform and keep apprised the campaigns on arrangements regarding logistics, debates and any other related matters.

- l. The CEO shall authorize the refund of Candidates' deposits upon approval of the financial returns.

- n. The CEO shall be responsible for attending to all other matters referred to the CEO by the Administrative Committee of the ONDP.
- o. The CEO shall ensure the neutrality of the leadership contest. No member of the Administrative Committee of the ONDP, or any member of the Provincial Executive attending to leadership matters, or any staff working with the CEO to facilitate the leadership campaign shall work on behalf of, or against, any Candidate or potential Candidate.
- p. Any answers provided by the CEO to a question from a leadership campaign will be provided to all leadership campaigns, if at the discretion of the CEO, it is in the interest of a fair contest.

2. CAMPAIGN PERIOD

For the purposes of reporting expenses and accepting contributions, the period of time commencing on the date set out in Appendix A shall be deemed the campaign period.

3. CANDIDATES

- a. Any member of the Party in good standing for at least 60 days prior to the Leadership vote who demonstrates a genuine interest in seeking the leadership and serving as the Leader may apply to be a Candidate.

Prior to being officially registered as a leadership Candidate with the Party, a prospective leadership Candidate must declare intent with the CEO.

- b. In order to be officially registered as a Candidate, a prospective candidate must:
 - ➔ register with Elections Ontario (LC-1); and
 - ➔ file the Party's nomination paperwork including the disclosure document with the CEO; and
 - ➔ submit the application fee with the CEO; and
 - ➔ be approved to stand as a candidate for leadership by the Provincial Director (Party CFO LC-1).
- c. To protect the best interests of the leadership Candidate and the Party, potential leadership Candidates are to provide complete disclosure. Potential Candidates are required to complete and sign a Personal Disclosure Questionnaire. The Personal Disclosure and other research will be reviewed closely (a process described internally as "vetting") and will form the basis of decisions by the Provincial Director regarding candidacy. The disclosure process is important: it will help identify personal issues that may become public in the political arena. Information in this questionnaire will be kept confidential and only used internally by the Provincial Director and a small candidate review team and such limited third parties as may be warranted in the circumstances to verify and investigate any items referred to in the disclosure questionnaire or which may arise in any due diligence conducted by the party, including the Provincial Director. The Chief Electoral Officer will publish a blank copy of the Personal Disclosure Questionnaire.
- d. There shall be a non-refundable registration fee of $50,000 for all Candidates. Of the $50,000 non-refundable registration fee, $5,000 is to be remitted by the prospective Candidate on filing registration papers (application fee). The balance ($45,000) is to be remitted in two scheduled payments as set out in Appendix A. Failure to remit the non-refundable registration fee shall render the registration null and void.
- e. The Candidate's CFO may instruct the party to apply directed contributions, submitted as cheques or credit card donations, towards the application fee until paid. The application deposit will be deemed paid once the applied directed contributions have reached the required level. Otherwise, any other method deemed acceptable by the CEO in consultation with Elections Ontario will be accepted.

- f. The second instalment of the registration fee of twenty thousand ($20,000) dollars is due 30 days following registration of the Candidate. The third installment of the registration fee of twenty five thousand ($25,000) is due 90 days from the leadership vote date.
- g. There shall be a refundable deposit of $5,000, which is to be returned to candidates on acceptance by the CEO of the final statement of donations and expenses. This deposit shall be remitted within 30 days of filing. Failure to remit the refundable registration fee shall render the registration null and void.
- h. The leadership Candidate shall comply with all rules and regulations set out in this document, the Ontario Election Act, Ontario Election Finances Act, the Constitution and Bylaws, and those prescribed by the CEO.
- i. Violation of the Leadership contest rules, Constitution and Bylaws or Election Act, Election Finances Act or the anti-harassment policy may result in sanctions up to and including fines and/or disqualification of the offending Candidate.
- j. Mutual respect must be the basis of interaction among New Democrats in addition to cooperation and understanding.

The Ontario NDP Anti-Harassment Policy applies to the Leadership Contest. It is the mutual responsibility of all participants in the Leadership Contest to promote a harassment-free environment.

- k. Each Candidate is responsible for their own web site and other social media sites. Each candidate shall provide to the CEO contact information of the host for each candidate's web site. A candidate's web site and social media shall be registered with the CEO. A declaration stating that the candidate's web site and other social media accounts are the candidate's views and do not represent the views of the Ontario NDP must be in a reasonably visible location. All costs associated with social media are considered leadership campaign expenses and must be reported. To facilitate transparency and openness, leadership campaigns should keep a record of the content campaign materials sent to members or published online. Where targeted advertising is used for online materials, candidates will keep a record of the profiles or targeting parameters used.

4. NOMINATION PROCESS

The Administrative Committee shall deliberate and provide a response to the appealing prospective Candidate within three (3) business days of the submission of the appeal.
